

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE NORTHERN DISTRICT OF MISSISSIPPI

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

v.

CASE NO. 3:21CR107-NBB

JAMARR SMITH
THOMAS IROKO AYODELE
GILBERT MCTHUNEL

ORDER GRANTING CONTINUANCE

Came on to be considered this day the motion of defendant Thomas Iroko Ayodele requesting the court to continue the trial in this case which is now set to begin on April 11, 2022. Counsel for the defendant states that due to amount of discovery in this case, and the complexity of defending the criminal charges against the defendant, additional time is needed to investigate the case and prepare for his plea or trial. The court is advised that counsel for the Government has no objection to the motion.

The Court finds that the ends of justice will be served by granting said continuance, and that such action outweighs the best interest of the public and the defendant in a speedy trial.

It is therefore ORDERED that the trial in this matter be, and the same is continued until June 6, 2022, and all pre-trial dates are extended accordingly.

It is further ORDERED that the delay from this date until commencement of trial shall be excluded from all computations relation to the Speedy Trial Act pursuant to 18 U. S. C. Section 3161(h)(7)(A).

ORDERED AND ADJUDGED this, the 24th day of March, 2022.
